

WARRANTY

This product is warranted to the Purchaser thereof to be free of defects in material construction and workmanship for three (3) months from the date of purchase, provided that this Warranty Certificate has been filled in at the time of sale of this product and provided it also has the stamp of the Dealer on it and it is signed by him. In addition to this, a claim can only be recognised provided an Invoice or a Delivery Note with the date and signature of the Dealer on it can be produced. Within the warranty period, repairs will be performed subject to the overleaf conditions, at any Tek Electronics' authorised Service Centre to make the product capable of being operated for the ordinary purpose of such products without charge for labour and parts. To qualify for free service under this Warranty, you must present this valid certificate, together with the defective product, to the nearest Tek Electronics' authorised Service Centre.
